

Grand Valley Council Newsletter

November 2014

As we enter the month November, I think of a time to be thankful. It is the time of harvest, thankful to our Veterans for their service, and a time to be thankful for everything God has given us. I ask that you encourage your Cadets to be thankful for all the blessings God has given us. With the busyness of holidays approaching, I hope we can all that time to reflect and be thankful for ever thing that helps us grow in our faith of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Next Counselor Meeting – November 13, 2014 7:30 p.m. @ Lee Street CRC, 1261 Lee St. SW Wyoming, MI
Classes: Head Counselor, Counselor, and Jr. Counselor

Club Registrations –Past Due, please get them to the Congressmen asap if your club still owes.

Club Dues- Due at the November 13 counselor meeting. $8 per cadet payable to Grand Valley Cadet Council

Counselor List- Gerrit Sterk Needs your new list ASAP. The sooner his gets the list the sooner we get the new counselor directories.

Campground committee- Asks that clubs let it be known the buildings are open for rent by Gems and Youth Groups on weekends during the fall months. We could use the extra revenue to offset plowing and propane cost. To make your winter campground reservations e-mail Tim Peters at timthebuilder@charter.net

Co-op Committee- Looking for a couple of new men from Grand Valley to fill some vacant spots.
